DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 16 - 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Diab et al. It is noted that Claim 16 of the instant application is a copy of claim 84 of Diab et al. However, Applicant has not requested an interference, nor has a showing under 37 CFR 1.608(b) been provided. As claims 17 - 21 cover essentially the same scope as claim 16 with minor variations in wording, Diab et al. also meet these claims.

Applicant is reminded that the patent cannot be overcome by an affidavit or declaration under 37 CFR 1.131 but only through interference proceedings. Note, however, 35 U.S.C. 135(b) and MPEP § 2307. The applicant is advised that an affidavit under 37 CFR 1.608(b) or evidence and an explanation under 37 CFR 1.608(b), as appropriate, must be submitted. See MPEP 2308.01 and 2301.02. The effective filing date of the instant application is 03 September 1991. The effective filing date of Diab et al. is 07 March 1991.

Double Patenting

3. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

4. Claims 16 - 21 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 16 - 21 of copending Application No. 10/749,139. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 16 - 21 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 13 of U.S. Patent No. 5,934,277. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claim of the patent is implemented with a linear fit, wherein the instant application refers to a least squares algorithm. However, one of skill in the art would recognize that a linear fit is a least squares fit. Thus, a method meeting the patented claim would necessarily meet the method of the instant application.

7. Claims 16 - 21 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,385,471. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the patent are implemented with a linear regression fit, wherein the instant application refers to a least squares algorithm. However, one of skill in the art would recognize that a linear regression fit is a least squares fit. Thus, a method meeting the patented claims would necessarily meet the method of the instant application.

8. Claims 16 - 21 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 9 and 10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,714,803. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the patent are implemented with a linear regression fit, wherein the instant application refers to a least squares algorithm. However, one of skill in the art would recognize that a linear regression fit is a least squares fit. Thus, a method meeting the patented claims would necessarily meet the method of the instant application.
